

Guns Guns Guns

(to the tune of 'Fun Fun Fun' by The Beach Boys)

Got his body armour on
And he's cruising through the school 'cos he can now
('Cos people kill people, Armed people kill people)
Seems that he got all his pistols and his rifles
Like Americans do now
(We looked at his background, It all checked out fine now)

And with the sun as it's blazing
He goes shooting just as fast as he can now
(He's got the ammo now, You ain't got a chance now)

'Cos we'll have guns guns guns
'Til Obama tries to take 'em away

The NRA can't stand it
'Cos they're used to getting all their own way now
(Their lobbyists work hard, The media they bombard)
And the Republicans moan their human rights are being all swept away now
(They couldn't be more wrong, These people are morons)
Obama tried to pass gun laws, maybe he will have a good fucking chance now
(He might a chance now, Must stick to his stance now)

They'll cling to guns guns guns
'Til the legislators take 'em away

Another shooting is over
And Obama, he is making a speech now
(This seems quite familiar, I'm sure we have been here)
He's saying words aren't enough and that we've got try and legislate guns now
(More people are dead now, More tears have been shed now)
And while we're crossing everything
'Cos we really hope he's gonna succeed now
(The NRA's quiet now, It won't be for long though)

They'll keep their guns guns guns
And it doesn't matter what liberals say

And they'll have fun fun fun
Shooting women, men and children all day

'Cos we'll have guns guns guns
'Til Obama tries to take 'em away
